

The Lena To Disarm At San Francisco

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 16.—The request of the captain of the Russian cruiser Lena for permission to dismantle has been granted. President Roosevelt orders the vessel disarmed at Mare Island and held there until the end of the war. The officers and men are to be given liberty on parole until a decision has been reached regarding the disposition of them.

PORT ARTHUR STILL ATTACKED.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 15.—General Stoessel reports that the Japanese are constructing fortifications near Port Arthur and are continuing the bombardment. They have also issued a proclamation demanding the surrender of the forts.

BRITISH BARK SUNK.

NAGASAKI, September 15.—A vessel supposed to be the British bark Lucia has been sunk by a mine at Port Arthur. Only one of those on board was saved. It is supposed that she was attempting to run the blockade, with a cargo of supplies.

SIGNAL CORPS TO ANNOUNCE RESULTS OF REGATTA RACES

AN ORIGINAL FEATURE WILL BE ADDED TO THE DAY'S PROGRAM—MEN FROM THE NATIONAL GUARD CORPS WILL BE STATIONED AT DIFFERENT PLACES ALONG THE COURSE—JUDGES WILL BE ON THE STEAMER IVALANI.

The Regatta Day races this year will probably be the best that have ever been witnessed in the harbor. The inter-club contests taken as a whole are apt to be the closest and most exciting that have been witnessed in the history of the regatta day sports.

Additional interest is given to the events by the fact that the Signal Corps of the National Guard will assist in the program. Members of the corps will be stationed on the judges boat, and at the Healan and Myrtle Club houses. They will signal the results and progress of the various races. Naturally the keenest interest will be taken in the races between the Myrtle and Healan crews. A blue flag for the Healan and a red flag for the Myrtle may be used for quick signalling.

The old government tug Eleu is to live again. The craft will be used for the band to move about the harbor during the day's sports. The judges and other officials will have the steamer Ivalani as usual. She will be on the makai side of the channel on a line from the Kinau wharf.

Tomorrow afternoon will see the final practice for the various crews. The Waikiki contingent will have a number of canoes entered and some good races are certain.

THE LABOR UNION GRAFT

NEW YORK, August 20.—Philip Weinseimer, labor leader, has been arrested on a charge similar to that which caused the downfall of the famous Samuel Parks. Weinseimer is recognized as Parks' successor in the labor circles here, and he was caught in a trap that was laid for him. He is charged with blackmail, having, as is alleged, accepted money as a bribe to call off a strike which was under his control. This is the charge that was brought against Parks, who recently died in prison.

GRAND JURY AND EDITOR SMITH

AN INDICTMENT FOR LIBEL OF TESTA CONSIDERED AND SAID TO BE IGNORED.

The Grand Jury had F. J. Testa as a witness in the matter of an alleged libel of the editor of the Independent and it is said that the matter under discussion was an indictment of Editor Walter G. Smith of the Advertiser for criminal libel. The Advertiser published statements regarding Testa's having been convicted of a felony and being disqualified as a citizen and voter. After inquiring into the matter the Grand Jury is said to have voted no bill.

GAME OF POLITICS

FRANK ANDRADE TO BE THE PORTUGUESE REPRESENTATIVE ON THE REPUBLICAN TICKET AGAIN—FAXON BISHOP, JOHN LANE AND DOWSETT PROBABLY THE THREE MEN TO RUN FOR THE SENATE.

One of the interesting phases of the present situation in the Republican camp is the effort being put forth by the friends of Cecil Brown to secure him a place on the ticket. This is of course equivalent to saying that there is a good deal of opposition to him, and there can be no gainsaying the fact that there is. Last night a caucus was held in the Eighth precinct of the Fourth District and it was decided to trade with any precinct which would guarantee support for Brown. This is looked upon by the older politicians as tantamount to an admission of expected defeat, but the friends of Brown still declare that he is going strong and hope for victory.

The opinion generally expressed is that Faxon Bishop, Jack Dowsett and John Lane will be the party's nominees. E. R. Adams is making a fierce fight in the Fifth District, but there is no doubt that the party managers have resolved that Lane is the man. The bulk of the party feel that the Hawaiian element should be represented on the ticket and Lane, whose original intention it was to try for the lower house, has therefore been approached and his assent to the nomination has been secured.

The refusal of John Hughes to run in the Fourth is positive and final and the workingman's vote will go to E. W. Quinn, whose nomination is therefore assured. He will be put up by National Committeeman A. G. M. Robertson who will attend on a proxy. A general desire is expressed for the renomination of Samuel Chillingworth. He was a tower of strength in the old legislature, and if he should go back this time will unquestionably be chairman of the Judiciary committee.

The question of the renomination of Frank Andrade was practically settled in his favor today by the presentation to Chairman Lorrin Andrews of the Fourth District petition signed by 105 voters. Nearly all of the signatories are Portuguese. It is understood that there will be a Portuguese on the Democratic ticket also. Andrade made a good record in the last House and it is believed that he will win out again.

Senator Kalaauokalani has returned from his Hawaii tour in support of the Home Rule ticket. Kalaauokalani talks with great hopefulness of the chances of Notley as Delegate to Congress. The Home Rule leader says that things are coming his way on Hawaii, and professes to believe that the Home Rule ticket is going to win.

Charles Notley, Jonah Kumalee and J. M. Poepee, the Home Rule spellbinders, also returned from Maui this morning on the steamer Likelike.

THE GOVERNOR AT WAILUKU

LAHAINA'S ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION RIVALLED BY THAT OF THE OTHER MAUI CITY—COMPANY I OF THE NATIONAL GUARD PARADES AS AN ESCORT—CARTER PRESENTS THE COMPANY WITH A FLAG AND MAKES AN ADDRESS TO THE MEMBERS.

WAILUKU, September 12.—Wailuku was not one iota less loyal to the Territorial head, in the matter of receiving him than was the Palm tree city of Lahaina. A committee of representative men from Wailuku met the Governor at Wailuke and escorted him to Wailuku at about 4:30 p. m. on last Saturday evening. Company I turned out in full uniform and met him at the bridge, dividing Wailuku from the Wailuke precinct. The militia was preceded by boys carrying many lighted torches. When the governor and party arrived at the bridge a long procession was formed, headed by Captain Bal and his company. Following him was the band containing Governor Carter, C. D. Lufkin and R. A. Wadsworth, then followed a long procession of hacks, with people who had gone to Wailuke to meet the Governor.

High street between the Maui Hotel and Court House was beautifully illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Outside of the Court House, a short address was made by the Governor. He complimented Company I in the highest terms, and stated that nowhere was he ever given the reception that he had had on Maui, and that "Maui No Ka Oi" was a term well suited for the island. He spoke of the American flag, for which many thousand soldiers had died, and presented a flag to Captain Bal as his gift to the Company, Lieut. Kellinot in a few well chosen words thanked the Governor for his interest in Company I, and assured him that the flag would be protected even at the sacrifice of the lives of the members forming the Company.

The governor then went into the court house, where he made another address, after which they proceeded to the Maui hotel to enjoy a hearty meal which had been prepared for them.

How to Avoid the Dangers of a Cold. Everyone must realize the dangers attending a severe cold, and that it is always prudent to remain in-doors until the danger is passed. Many, however, do not feel able to lose the time and will be interested in knowing that a severe cold may be broken up and all danger avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures, but cures quickly and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.
